REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Senator Watson, Chairman of the Committee on Miscellaneous Legislation, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 7, 1929.

Hon. J. J. Parrish,

President of the Senate.

Sir:

Your Committee on Miscellaneous Legislation, to whom was referred:

Senate Bill No. 24:

A bill to be entitled An Act to provide for, regulate and license race meetings, and legalizing the pari-mutuel system of wagering in connection therewith, in the State of Florida; to provide for the appointment of a State Racing Commission; prescribing the duties and fixing the compensation of the members thereof; to provide for elections to make effective the provisions of this Act, and to provide penalties for its violation.

Have had the same under consideration and recommend that the substitute bill attached hereto do pass in lieu of the original bill, to-wit:

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 24:

A bill to be entitled An Act to provide for the raising of revenue to the State of Florida by the regulation and licensing of race meetings, and legalizing the pari-mutuel system of wagering in connection therewith in the State of Florida; to provide for the appointment of a State Racing Commission; prescribing the duties and fixing the compensation of the members thereof; to provide for elections to make effective the provisions of this Act, and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof.

Very respectfully,

J. W. WATSON,

Chairman of Committee.

And Senate Bill No. 24, with Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 24, contained in the above report, was placed on the Calendar of Bills on Second Reading.

The consideration of the following amendment which was pending at the hour of recess was resumed:

In Section 2, (printed bill), strike out Section 2 and insert in lieu thereof the following: The word "bonds" as used in this Act shall be construed to include bonds, time warrants, notes and other forms of indebtedness issued by any county, municipality, Board of Public Instruction, Special School District, Road and Bridge District or other political subdivision of the State of Florida.

Senator Anderson having moved the adoption of the amendment.

Pending the consideration of the amendment, Senator Anderson offered the following substitute amendment:

Strike out Section 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "the word 'bonds' as used in this Act shall be construed to include bonds, time warrants and notes issued for road and bridge purposes, issued by any County or Road and Bridge District, or by any Board of Public Instruction, or Special School District."

Senator Anderson moved the adoption of the substitute amendment.

Upon which a "yea" and "nay" vote was demanded.

Upon call of the roll on the adoption of the substitute amendment the vote was:
